

Please do not weaken the New Jersey 'Do Not Call' laws. For the first time in years, my home can really be a refuge. I also have discovered that this law has kept my unlisted number from becoming public, something that is very important to me.